

PART THREE

Film / TV

Films and television are a very big part of Christmas. What Christmas TV programmes and films are being described here?

- 1 A family flies to Paris for Christmas but they leave something very important behind.
- 2 A dog is abandoned (= opuštěn) on Christmas Eve and finds a new home.
- 3 An angry creature steals everyone's presents but still can't ruin Christmas.
- 4 A mean (= lakomý) man is visited by ghosts on Christmas Eve.
- 5 One character breaks a little girl's leg and must help her sell cookies. Another character sells Christmas trees which makes another character sad.

PART FOUR

USA vs UK

Christmas is pretty similar in the UK and USA, but there are some differences. Are these traditions part of a UK or US Christmas?

- 1 Here the man who brings presents is called Father Christmas.
- 2 Here people love to drink a special drink called eggnog. It is made from milk, cream, sugar and eggs and sometimes contains brandy or rum.
- 3 Not many people eat turkey for Christmas here. Most families have ham or beef on Christmas Day, or even a Chinese takeaway (= jídlo s sebou).
- 4 A popular Christmas Day tradition is to go to the pub. Many people go to greet their friends and have a few beers before lunch.
- 5 Pulling a cracker is an important part of the Christmas meal. Two people each take an end of the cracker and pull as hard as they can. The cracker opens with a "crack" and inside are a joke, a paper hat and a small toy.

PART FIVE
