

Sequence 2

(up to: ... 116 protected species of animal in Britain.)

- 1  Watch the sequence. Number the animals in the order in which you see them.

FOX

Usually lives in the but some now live in

GREY SQUIRREL

Came to Britain from in 19th century – than red squirrel – better at than red squirrel.

BADGER

Has a black and white

Comes out at RABBIT

Easy to see

In the morning and in the

RED DEER

The wild animal in Britain.

Lives mainly in Highlands.

FALLOW DEER

Attractive – easy to see because they live

Britain.

HEDGEHOG

Only British animal with

FIELD MOUSE

One of the wild animals.

RED SQUIRREL

years ago it lived all over

Britain – now lives in and some of England.

GOLDEN EAGLE

Just over left in the wild – one of the largest British birds – it's a species.

- 2  Watch the sequence again. Complete the notes about each animal.